

House Resolution No. 2166

Whereas, it is with great pride and sincere admiration that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an extraordinary young Missouri citizen who has attained tremendous personal success through achievement in the Boy Scouts of America program; and

Whereas, Travis M. Figg of Troop 2 in Jefferson City, Missouri, will receive the prestigious Eagle Scout Award during a Court of Honor ceremony to be held May 18, 2003, in the outdoor classroom at Lewis and Clark Middle School; and

Whereas, Travis Figg earned the praise and respect of many for the enthusiasm and initiative he displayed in regard to his Eagle Project which involved a landscaping project at Lewis and Clark Middle School; and

Whereas, during his eleven years in the Scouting program, Travis Figg earned an impressive thirty merit badges, received the World Conservation Award and the Conservation Federation of Missouri Charles P. Bell Scholarship, attained Brotherhood membership in the Order of the Arrow, hiked to the bottom of the Grand Canyon and to the top of Pagosa Peak in the Rocky Mountains, canoed Voyageurs National Park, and participated in Junior Leadership Training, COPE, summer camp at Camp Hohn, and a High Adventure Trip to the Boundary Waters of Minnesota/Canada; and

Whereas, Travis Figg has readily prepared himself for the challenges of the outside world through his important terms of service to his Troop as Den Chief, Patrol Leader, Troop Guide, Senior Patrol Leader, Venturing Crew President and Vice President, and Junior Leader Training Staff Member; and

Whereas, Travis Figg is an exemplary student who excels in his studies, is courteous to his teachers and fellow classmates, and does his best to live each day by the high standards and ideals of Scouting; and

Whereas, Travis Figg has achieved all of this and more with the love, support, and encouragement he has continually received from his proud parents, Dennis E. Figg and Beverly J. Figg:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty congratulations to Travis Figg at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing him only the very best as he continues to uphold the Scouting tradition with both honor and decorum; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Eagle Scout Travis M. Figg.
